SDPD Central Division will once again host their annual toy giveaway for kids. Santa Claus will be visiting Kimbrough Elementary handing out toys to pre-selected children from several schools within the community. It is estimated over 1000 children will receive presents from Santa.

This toy give away was made possible by donations from the United States Marine Corp Toys for Tots program, CP Kelco, Northrop Grumman and the Jerry Griffin Memorial Fund.

This event is not open to the public. The students have been pre-selected and the event is by invitation only.

Media are invited to videotape this event.
